

Complaints and Disputes Resolution and Financial Hardship Guide

About us

We (Advantage Financial Services Pty Ltd (Advantage) ABN 36 130 012 930 Australian Credit Licence 391202) manage complaints and consider hardship assistance for your lender (AFSH Nominees Pty Ltd or Perpetual Trustees Victoria Ltd).

If you have a complaint or are experiencing hardship, Advantage will look after you.

Complaints and Disputes Resolution Process

We are committed to providing a high level of service. However, there may be times where you may feel that this is not the case. We have a process to help resolve those disputes if you have a complaint. The effective handling of complaints and resolution of disputes is a key means of ensuring that the products and services offered by us are provided efficiently, honestly and fairly.

How to make a complaint and the complaint process

If you are unhappy with a product or service we provide, or the way we handle personal information about you we'd like to hear about it. You can do so by writing, calling or emailing us with your complaint.

We may ask you to provide us with details of your complaint including:

- Your full name, address and contact phone numbers.
- Your account number (if applicable).
- A description of your complaint.
- Any additional documentation or information that may support your complaint and help us to resolve it.
- How you would like us to resolve your complaint.

We may ask for further information and request that you put the details of your complaint in writing to ensure your complaint is properly investigated.

Where your complaint is in relation to a broker or mortgage manager we may ask you to contact them to resolve the matter in the first instance.

Our contact details are:

Phone: +61 (3) 9322 6965

Email: complaints@advantage.com.au

Fax: 61 (3) 8618 4464

Mail: Complaints and Disputes Resolution Officer Advantage Financial Services Pty Ltd
P.O. Box 626 Collins Street West Melbourne Vic. 8007

Investigating a complaint

Most matters can be resolved quickly when you contact us. If your complaint requires it, we will investigate the matters you outline fairly and in a timely manner.

We will inform you of the progress of our investigations. We will provide you with the outcome of the investigation and the reason/s for our decision or inform you when we require more time to complete the investigation. If your complaint is about the way we handle credit information or credit eligibility information we hold about you, we may seek your agreement to extend the time for us to complete the investigation.

If we need more information to resolve your complaint, we will inform you and agree with you an appropriate timeframe for a response.

A complaint will not be investigated by a staff member who is involved in the subject matter of the complaint.

Timeframes for response

We will try to resolve the matter as soon as possible. If your complaint cannot be resolved immediately, we will acknowledge your request within 5 business days of receipt of the complaint. In most cases where your complaint cannot be resolved immediately, we will let you know of the outcome within 30 days from the date you make a complaint about privacy and within 45 days from the date you make any other type of complaint.

How much will it cost?

We do not charge you for handling a dispute or complaint. We may charge you for providing you documents or statements if you ask for additional copies.

Still not satisfied?

If you do not think we have resolved your complaint to your satisfaction or have not done so within 30 days of making a complaint about privacy or within 45 days of making any other complaint you may take the matter free of charge to our External Dispute Resolution Scheme of which we are a member. Their details are as follows:

Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)

Website: www.afca.org.au

Email: info@afca.org.au

Telephone: 1800 931 678 (free call)

In writing to: Australian Financial Complaints Authority GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001

Also, for complaints about privacy, you can take your complaint to the Information Commissioner online at <http://www.oaic.gov.au/privacy/making-a-privacy-complaint> or by contacting the Information Commissioner's office on 1300 363 992.

Financial hardship process

We understand that sometimes you may face temporary periods of financial hardship.

This may arise where:

- you have lost your job, or there is a material reduction in your income;
- you have an unexpected illness or medical expenses;
- you experience a relationship breakdown;
- you experience a natural disaster; or
- you think you might be unable to make your repayments in the future due to some event.

If there is a reason why you cannot make your regular repayments, we may be able to help you by agreeing to vary your loan contract.

The sooner you contact us, the easier it will be to assist you.

What can we do?

The type of assistance we may give you will depend on your circumstances. We may be able to:

- extend the term of your contract and reduce repayments; or
- extend the term of your contract and delay repayments for a set time; or
- delay repayments for a set time without extending the term of your contract.

Alternatively, you may request that we negotiate with you to postpone any further action that we may take against you if we have served you a default notice.

What do you need to do?

We have a dedicated team who are trained to work with you while you get back on your feet.

Contact the Customer Support Team on 1300 155 426 to discuss your situation if you are experiencing financial hardship as soon as possible.

Important information

There is no guarantee that we will agree to change your contract or postpone any further action.

After we receive your application, along with any other information we may need to assess your situation, we will give you a written notice within 21 calendar days stating whether or not we agree to the change.

- If we agree, you will receive a written notice detailing the agreement within 30 days.
- If we refuse, we will provide you with reasons. You have the right to have the decision reviewed.

Still not satisfied?

If we refuse your hardship application and you do think our decision needs to be reviewed, you may take the matter free of charge to our External Dispute Resolution Scheme of which we are a member. Their details are as follows:

Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)

Website: www.afca.org.au

Email: info@afca.org.au

Telephone: 1800 931 678 (free call)

In writing to: Australian Financial Complaints Authority GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001